Next Run- November 21st (no.2727)

Hares: Free Fuck and Bunter

Location: Wan Tau Kok Playground, beside Tai Po Market MTR station and adjacent to the tennis courts.

Directions: Tai Po Market station, exit A2 and walk straight for approximately 50 meters until you see the subway on your right. Walk through the subway, which is under the railway platform, upon your exit you will be in the playground. Please see attached photos.

Additional Information: Please note that this week's bucket is not our "usual location" at the contour sitting out area near the old police station, as gathering restrictions have been relaxed. However, please note that we will be in a public place so keep groups to no more than 12 people. Toilet and shower facilities are near the bucket, and we are back to a uniform start of 6 pm.

Assigned scribes: Beanacunt / Geriatric

Words from the GM

G'Day boys....Once again I was unable to attend this time due to a positive RAT and subsequent home isolation. This is now becoming a habit and with work commitments immanent they may not be a physical appearance for a few more weeks. I may well be known as "The Claytons GM"

Moving right along, Hares Burning Lust and Kraptain Kompost were this weeks Hares, Great to see the return of an A to B, on this occasion the creative routing Chai Wan to Shek O Beach of around 6.5km, well done Hares. As always a well attended event. I will have to wait for the trash to get the juicy goss... especially the last home honors.

Whilst the content of the flash this week was not as intriguing as last week, all appeared to be a great night as usual. Great to see Hooray Henry visiting, there was no outstanding POM but there seemed to be an excessive amount of photos of Peter Poof...hence this weeks mention!

JM1 and RA held the reins once again keeping the wild pack under control.

Looks like you guys are headed to Tai Po next week under the misguidance of Bunter and Freefuck...which will be a great event no doubt.

Hopefully I can get to another run before the years end, until then ON On!

GM LongHorn (MIA).

Last Week's Run No. 2726

Date: November 14th, 2022

Hares: Burning Lust and Kraptain Kompost

Location: Chai Wan to Big Wave Bay

Scribe: Beanacunt

This week we had the dream team of Hares - Our very own Craptain of Industry and Burning Lust an Actuary! (An Actuary is a very numerate guy who finds accountancy a bit too exciting) Their combined IQ might even equal Dogbeaters!

And so we arrived at Chai Wan to be told it was to be an A to B - no clues were given at the time but B turned out to be Shek-o - this caused some consternation to those who had urgent appointments elsewhere that evening!

Unfortunately, your scribe wasn't up to an A to B over the Dragons Back and became a bag carrier instead!

Apparently the run was quite straightforward plus a long Rambos loop for the sake of the jockstrappers. There was some shiggy involved as well I was told.

B was a very pleasant location next to the beach - the early walkers came in after about 1.5 hours - the length was 7-8 km according to those with fit twits. The FRBs came in on the hour followed by the pack during the next half hour.

There were about 24 participants on the night! One of whom was Dogbite who had not been seen in a long time.

The bucket and on on beer was supplied from the local drinks stall which was very cost effective . This put a smile on Hashcash's (my) face in these inflationary days.

The on on was in a Thai place where we had the upstairs room in the open air more or less to ourselves. The food was varied and tasty but maybe a little to much MSG given my headache later on!

The down downs were administered efficiently by WTF in the absence of the GM whose family are stricken with covid apparently. I got a DD for reasons I cannot remember and also our returnee Dogbite and the hares etc etc!

All in all a splendid Monday evening in the very pleasant autumn air!

Well done the Hares!

On on

Hopeless was passed this shirt so we could get some pix for Copenhagen Hash House Harriers in honour of one of their deceased hashers and former KH3 member Kaj Peterson a.k.a. "Der Tulip Eater"

Posted by Animal:

Kaj Peterson sadly passed away on March 10th 2018. He had done 87 runs between 5th August 1975 to 8th August 1977. Throughout his time with KH3 he was known by a variety and amusing hash names: "Khyber Kaj"; "Titshow Thro Der Tulips Wid Me" and "Der Tulip Eater"

The latter stemmed from his reluctance to go on DD subscription. As quoted by himself upon being requested to join the KH3 DD

"Because I darnt have der benk account in HonkKonk !!"

this response prompted a nasty ultimatum in the KH3 newsletter-
 "Fill in you DD or fuck off you tulip-eating Scandinavian !!"
